According to clients, such as William Clarke College, the company's latest software solution, Sage MicrOpay, meets the highest expectations for price.

Why did William Clarke move to Sage MicrOpay?

William Clarke College in Kellyville NSW has been a Sage MicrOpay customer since 1993. Recently, they made the transition to Sage MicrOpay.

Philip Morrow, Administration Services Coordinator at William Clarke College, explains why. “Sage MicrOpay was selected because, from my research, it was the most suitable for us. Also, our Bursar, Geoff Williams, had previous dealings with Sage MicrOpay in a former position.

“Sage MicrOpay made it easier for us immediately as all records were stored electronically and it performed all the complex processes for us. Sage MicrOpay always kept the software up to date with respect to legislation, relieving us of this hassle. Time saving was extremely important to us.

"We went to the market place, and Sage MicrOpay, seemed to be able to cater for nearly all of our needs.

"Sage MicrOpay was our choice, due to our prior experiences with Sage MicrOpay being extremely positive and that Sage MicrOpay allowed us more flexibility, functionality, reporting and ease of use (once you forget your old ways).

"Sage MicrOpay has invested a lot of time and energy in trying to make the superannuation process easier for us. It is a difficult and complex area, but they are constantly streamlining it as much as possible. They are currently working with our super fund to solve some issues.

"I would have no hesitation in recommending Sage MicrOpay to anyone, due to our experiences with them in the area of support, training and keeping the software updated to fit in with legislation and their commitment to improve their package. Over the years I have never had to complain about the lack of support. They are always there ready to help. Sometimes, a programme amendment may be required to rectify the problem, but this will happen quickly.

"The changeover to Sage MicrOpay went extremely smoothly with no hassles.

"For ease of conversion we requested our account manager come and assist in this process. Well worth it. I look forward to working with Sage MicrOpay for many years."
