

Sage HRMS Supplemental Product or Service Terms

Heading	Supplemental Terms
Use Restrictions	For each Site License that You purchase, You may copy the Single-User version of the Software for each named user at a single location for which the Site License has been purchased. For each Network License that You purchase, You may Use the Software on a single network server or central computer (the "Server") that utilizes a supported operating environment listed in the installation documentation and the Server may serve only the number of named users for each computer (seat licenses) for which the Network License has been purchased.