

Success Story

Tenzing turns to Sage Intacct for unprecedented financial insight into its business

Technology services company gains robust reporting capabilities with Sage cloud finance solution.

“After evaluating Sage Intacct and NetSuite, there was simply no comparison between the two—we loved Sage Intacct’s ease-of-use, robust reporting capabilities, and its tight integration with Salesforce.”

Jodie Watts

Director of Finance, Tenzing

Story Summary

Tenzing, the leading provider of infrastructure, performance, and security services for ecommerce, implemented Sage Intacct’s best-in-class cloud financial management software to help the business scale and meet growing customer demand. The technology services migrated to Sage Intacct for greater visibility into important metrics—including the profitability of its customers, data centers, and product lines.

In addition, the solution is helping Tenzing drive efficiencies across several key processes, such as purchasing, accounts receivable, revenue recognition, time and expense management, multi-currency management, and financial reporting.
