2.8 You may let someone else (for example a managed/outsourced/hosted services provider) install the Product (excluding any third party products or services covered under clause 2.7) so that they can provide managed/outsourced/hosted services only to you using your copy of the Product, so long as: (a) you do not install it as well, and (b) they have confirmed to you in writing that they will comply with this Agreement, in particular that they will only provide and manage access to your own users as described in clause 4.1 and not use it for any other purpose. If you do let someone else install the Software in this way, you remain responsible to us for your and their compliance with this Agreement and you must, at your own cost, take any corrective action as directed by us. You should be aware that we have not tested the Software (and any related materials) for use other than directly by you in accordance with our operating instructions.

2.9 Save as set out in clause 2.8, you must not allow anyone else to use, access, distribute or exploit the Product in any way. For example you may not use the Product to provide services to others (sometimes called bureau services) or to permit anyone else other than your Authorised Users to have remote access to the Product (sometimes called hosted or ASP services).

5.1 We will provide technical support on the Product to your Sage Partner in accordance with the relevant contractual arrangements between the Sage Partner and us.

5.2 We do not provide technical support for problems:

5.2.1 caused by using the Product in any way not described in the Documentation (for example making direct changes to the Product’s database); and

5.2.2 which do not directly relate to the performance of the Product itself, for example problems which relate to: (a) the administration and maintenance of a computer system or network; or (b) the way in which the Product was set up by your Sage Partner.

5.3 At our absolute discretion, we may provide technical support for the Product in a virtualised Windows environment provided the environment is running a version of Windows that we support. It is not practical or feasible for us to test the Product on all virtualised platforms, however, and if you use the Product in this way you do so at your own risk. We may require issues to be reproduced in a standard (non-virtualised) environment by you or your Sage Partner and any defects relating to the running of the Product in a virtualised environment would not be addressed by us.

5.4 We reserve the right to discontinue the provision of support and/or maintenance of the Solution (or any version of it) at any time and to also provide to you (in substitution of the Software) replacement software which fulfils the same or similar functions.
The Services

6.1 Where you have purchased a fixed term licence, you must purchase a Service offering from us in order to continue to use the Product, which entitles you to receive such Updates and Upgrades as we may choose to release.

6.1.1 Where you have purchased a perpetual licence you may purchase a Service offering where agreed with us, however you will not automatically receive any Updates and Upgrades and continued use of the software without a Service offering will be at your own risk.

6.1.2 There are various different Service packages available and your entitlement will be set out in the Documentation. We will invoice your Sage Partner at the point of order for new customers or where you have purchased a fixed term licence, 30 days before your next Renewal Date for the Fees relating to your Service for the next Fixed Term Period.

6.2 Where you have purchased a fixed term licence, you can upgrade your Service package at any time provided that you will be charged (and your Sage Partner invoiced) on a pro-rated basis for the period until your next Renewal Date where you have purchased a fixed term licence or upfront where you have purchased a perpetual licence.

6.3 You can only downgrade your Service package on your first Renewal Date or, thereafter, after you have used the Service package level for a minimum period of 12 calendar months, and you will not be entitled to a refund of Fees paid.

6.4 As part of your Service package you may be granted access to services or licenses for products/additional users (provided by Sage or third parties) that are subject to separate terms and conditions (for example, the Sage Business Community or additional Web User licences) and user parameters. In the case of conflict, the terms and condition that accompany and apply to a particular service or product take precedence over these terms and conditions in relation to your use of that service or product only and you must adhere to the user parameters specified for that particular service or product offering. If your Service offering entitles you to a discount on Sage purchases through your Sage Partner, this discount cannot be used in conjunction with any special offers we are running that apply for a limited time only.

6.5 If your Service offering entitles you to receive access to our Report Library (previously referred to as Report of the Month) you acknowledge and agree that we are not responsible for the implementation of these reports and will not provide technical support in relation to these items. The reports are prepared on the basis of the version of the Product current at the date the report is distributed and will not be maintained by us for future versions. You may need assistance from your Sage Partner to tailor these reports for your business needs or configuration of the Product.

6.6 As part of your Service package you may be granted a set number of tickets to redeem against Sage report design services in any Licence Period. Depending on the complexity, or time required to produce requested reports or layouts, multiple tickets may be required by Sage in exchange for producing one report. If you fail to redeem tickets in any Licence Period they will expire and cannot be rolled-over and no cash equivalent will be offered.

6.7 You may be granted access to Sage Webinars or Videos as part of your Service entitlement or elect to purchase additional Sage Webinars/Videos. You acknowledge that from time to time webinars may be cancelled or that you might not be able to participate in particular webinars (for example if capacity for a webinar has been reached). Webinars and videos rely on Internet connectivity so we cannot guarantee that access will be uninterrupted and, accordingly, you agree that we won’t be responsible if you are unable to participate in a webinar for any reason. Any advice or guidance we give in webinars and videos will be generic and based on the standard version of our Product.

6.8 You will be granted access to the Sage Ideas Hub as part of your Service entitlement. We will monitor content of this Hub and can moderate or remove any content at our discretion. Any suggestions submitted to the Ideas Hub may be investigated and adopted by Sage but we are not obliged in any way to do so. You should only submit your own original ideas and suggestions and you waive absolutely any moral rights arising under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 in relation to your ideas and suggestions and, so far as legally possible, all broadly equivalent rights you may have in any territory of the world.

6.9 If you access our business advice service which includes HR Advice and/or Health and Safety Advice services as part of your Service entitlement, the following additional terms and conditions apply:

6.9.1 We will provide you with the relevant access to the section of our Website which contains information and documents about human resources, health and safety and other issues we may notify you of which are relevant to your business (“business information”).

6.9.2 You must use the business information for your legitimate business purposes. You can see and download the business information and make any copies you reasonably need for your employees who may need to have the business information to do their work for you. However, you must not remove or alter any copyright, notices, trademarks or other notices we may put on the business information.

6.9.3 You must not use business information in any way other than as set out in this Agreement and the Documentation, or as allowed by us in writing. In particular, you must not sell, rent out, distribute, publish, display or alter the business information or create documents from any business information, our Website or any other materials you receive from us, or use business information or business advice for any illegal purpose.

6.9.4 The business information is prepared and updated in line with relevant laws and best practice in England and Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland. It is only suitable for use in those countries. However, business information cannot take account of all circumstances, and so cannot provide specific advice (such as how a particular event will affect your legal position). We recommend that you either get your own legal advice if you have any questions about an issue set out in business information or subscribe to the business advice helpline.

6.9.5 If you sign and use any document forming part of the business information without first carrying out the steps at 5.8.4 above, you do so entirely at your own risk. If you are re-using any document you have previously used, you should check our Website to see if that document or any related material has been updated.

6.9.6 When preparing and updating our business information we will do everything reasonably possible to make sure it is correct and up to date.

6.9.7 If you cancel your Service package at any time only the business information given prior to cancellation can be subject to our guarantees.

6.10 You may be invited to events as part of your Service package at our premises or third party locations. You are responsible for all travel and incidental costs incurred by you to attend such events and must adhere to our instructions regarding attendance including without limitation health and safety and security instructions. We reserve the right to restrict entry to events or ask individuals to leave if we deem such action necessary for the benefit of other attendees.

6.11 We may change the benefits available in Service packages at our discretion on reasonable notice provided that if this includes the removal of services that are material to a Service package you may terminate your use of a package on 30 days written notice and will be entitled to a pro-rated refund of any prepaid fees.
